
MIT Kerberos Consortium Board Meeting

Stephen C. Buckley
Executive Director
December 11, 2007

Agenda

9:00 - 9:30 State of the Consortium - Buckley

9:30 - 10:00 State of the Technology - Hartman

10:00 - 10:15 Kerberos 5 Release 1.7 - Yu

10:15 - 10:30 Break

10:30 - 11:00 Kerberos ID Manager - Ellwood

11:00 - 11:15 Kerberos for Windows - Koch

11:15 - 12:15 Proposed Priorities - Raeburn

12:15 - 1:00 Lunch

1:00 - 2:00 Resource Allocation Discussion

2:00 Adjourn

State of the Consortium

- Goals of the Consortium
- Goals of this Meeting
- Launch
- Press
- Board
- Sponsors
- Prospects
- Finances

Goals of the Kerberos Consortium

- Establish Kerberos as a ubiquitous authentication mechanism.
- Make Kerberos appropriate for new environments.
- Enable Kerberos on more devices.
- Help developers integrate Kerberos.

Goals of this Meeting

- Explain what we're doing today.
- Prioritize what projects we want to explore in more detail.
- Confirm we should continue current activities.

Launch

- “Born on” date of September 27th, 2008
- 50 Attendees
- Apple, Centrify, Google, Stanford University, Sun, Team F1, UMich on board.
- Centrify, Google, Sun and Stanford Attend
- Reps Attend from HP and Red Hat
- Endorsement from Clifford Neuman
- MIT EVP and VPs speak

Press

- MIT Press Release
- Kerberos Consortium on MIT Home Page
- Blog Entries at Centrify, RedHat, Slashdot
- 10 Articles Published, All Highly Favorable
 - The Boston Globe, InfoWorld, Network World, Remond Mag, The Washington DC Examiner, ZD Net, IT Pro, Internet News, Homeland Security Daily Wire.

Board

- Executive Advisory Board Formed
- Help Prioritizing Projects
- Initial Members
 - Paul Armstrong, Google
 - Wilson D'Souza, MIT
 - Wyllys Ingersoll, Sun

Sponsors

- Apple
- Centrifify Corporation
- The United States Department of Defense
- Duke University
- The Financial Services Technology Consortium
- Google
- Iowa State University
- NASA
- Pennsylvania State University
- Stanford University
- Sun Microsystems
- TeamF1, Inc.
- The University of Michigan

Prospects

RedHat (“Will join Q2 ‘08”)

Microsoft (Agreement past legal)

Goldman Sachs (Awaiting final exec approval)

Juniper Networks (Awaiting final exec approval)

40 others, including: IBM, Cisco, Bank of America, HP, RSA/EMC, Intel ...

Finances

- MIT FY 2008* Investment: $992k
 - $663K Development, $329K start-up
 - $140K Uncommitted for remainder of FY
- Sponsor Commitments to Date: $430K
- Sponsor Target for FY '09: $900K
- MIT Commitment: $667K
- Total FY '09 Budget $1.57 Million

* MIT Fiscal Year runs July-1-June 30